SECTION 6

INTERMENTS

The directory may accept a request for interment only with the written permission of the recorded owner. However, upon the demise of the owners, the written permission of one or more of the surviving heirs (depending upon the relationship with the deceased to the recorded owner) may be necessary to grant the Right of Interment to another heir at law at the time of death unless written instructions of the owners to the contrary are on file in the Cemetery office.

SECTION 7

SEQUENCE OF INHERITANCE HEIRS AT LAW

St. Charles cemetery retains full ownership of all cemetery properties. The purchaser of any cemetery property is purchasing the right to interment in said grave/niche. The purchaser does not in any way own the property and must comply with the Rules and Regulations of St. Charles Cemetery.

With the demise of the owner of a grave/lot/niche, the right of interment shall devolve to the appropriate level of heirship equally. When the Right of Interment in a cemetery grave/lot/niche is granted, St. Charles cemetery withholds unto themselves the title of ownership of the cemetery property.

WRITTEN INSTRUCTIONS

If the grave/lot/niche owner filed written instructions at the cemetery office as to which member or members of their families shall succeed to the right of interment of said grave/lot/niche, said instructions will be accepted by the director and will be followed if, in the judgment of said director, such instructions are definite, reasonable, and practical, according to the rules and regulations of St. Charles Cemetery subject however, to a vested right of interment of the surviving owner's spouse.

ABSENCE OF WRITTEN INSTRUCTIONS

If valid or sufficient written instructions concerning right of interment was not previously filed at the Cemetery office, or if valid and sufficient instructions are in conflict with a later will and the grave/niche owners have filed instructions in said will, specifying name of cemetery, location, sections, and number of grave/lot, duly admitted to probate in a court having jurisdiction thereof, subject however to a vested right of interment of a surviving owner's spouse, such instructions shall control, provided they are not in conflict with the St. Charles Cemetery Rules and Regulations then in force and providing the St. Charles Cemetery office is provided with the same.

In the absence of valid and sufficient written instructions filed at said office by the grave/lot/niche owners or a duly probated will, the rights of interment shall devolve upon those entitled to succeed thereto by the following laws of succession.

The surviving spouse of the owner has a prior right of one burial space in the grave/lot/niche. This right may be voluntarily forfeited at any time, otherwise it will terminate upon death or remarriage.

Rules & Regulations for St. Charles's Cemetery

The interment rights in the remainder of the grave/lot/niche are inherited from the interstate owners in the following manner:

1. To all the children of the owners. The spouses of the owner's children or spouses of heirs at law have a right of interment or entombment only with the signed permission of all surviving children of the owners or heirs at law. If the spouse remarries they lose their right of interment.
2. If all of the children of the owners are deceased then the grandchildren of the owners inherit a right of interment.
3. If all the grandchildren of the owners are deceased then either the mother or father or the owners inherit a right of interment.
4. If all of the first three classifications are deceased then the living brothers and sisters inherit a right of interment .
5. If all the brothers or sisters of the owners are deceased then the nephews and nieces of the owners inherit a right of interment.
6. If all the nephews and nieces of the owners are deceased then the grandparents of the owners inherit a right of interment.
7. If all the grandparents of the owners are deceased then the uncles and aunts of the owners shall inherit a right of interment.

Only the original owners may assign or transfer the right of interment in a grave/lot/niche until his/her demise at which time all necessary heirs must sign the appropriate affidavits.

Each transfer must have the approval of the director. Each qualified heir shares equally and jointly in the interment rights while vacant graves remain the grave/lot/niche. Their individual right cannot be determined except at the time of their demise which gives them the right if they qualify in the sequence of inheritance. Any qualified heir may release their right at any time, however they cannot assign or transfer this right to any person except to the other qualifying surviving heirs at law jointly.

When all graves are occupied the surviving heirs forfeit their rights of interment in said grave/lot.

SECTION 8

CONDUCT IN CEMETERY

Visitors – Visitors within the cemetery shall use only the designated roads and walks unless it is necessary to walk on the grave lawn to gain access to their own grave/lot. The management expressly disclaims liability for any liability for any injuries sustained by anyone violating this rule.

Visitor or grave/lot owners are not permitted to lounge on any of the cemetery grounds, graves, or monuments or in any of the buildings.

Trespassers – Only the grave/lot owners, relatives or friends are permitted on the premises of a cemetery grave/lot. Any other person thereon shall be considered a trespasser. Idling, loafing, loitering, or any boisterous demonstrations within the cemetery or any of its buildings prohibited. The disposal of rubbish on roads, driveways, paths, walks, or any part of the grounds or in the cemetery building is prohibited. Picnicking within the cemetery is prohibited.

Rules & Regulations for St. Charles's Cemetery

Motor Vehicles – Automobiles, funeral hearse, trucks and all motor vehicles must be kept under control at all times and at no time shall such vehicles drive within the cemetery at a speed in excess of 15 miles per hour. Automobiles are not allowed to park or come to a full stop of an open grave unless such automobiles are in attendance at a funeral. It is prohibited to park or leave any motor vehicle on any road or driveway within the cemetery or parked in such a position as to prevent other vehicles from passing. If so parked, the management will remove said vehicles.

Bicycles and Motorcycles – The management may refuse admission of bicycles or motorcycles in the cemetery.

Flowers and Shrubs – Grave/lot owners or visitor shall not take any flowers which do not belong to them, break any branches, remove, damage, or cut any tree, plant or shrub.

Signs and Advertising – No signs, notices, or advertising of any kind shall be allowed within the cemetery except those placed by management.

Improper Assemblages – The management reserves the right to forbid and prevent assemblages which it deems improper.

Children – Children under 16 years of age are not permitted within the cemetery grounds unless accompanied by a responsible adult/

Pets – No pets are allowed on cemetery grounds.

ANY AND ALL VIOLATORS OF THE ABOVE, IS SUBJECT TO THE DISPATCH OF LOCAL AUTHORITIES.

SECTION 9

IN GENERAL

The statement of any employee is not binding upon the management if such statement contradicts these Rules and Regulations.

These Rules and Regulations shall apply to all grave/lots/niches, ground flush markers, memorials or decorations of any type.

The director reserves the right, without notice, to make temporary exceptions, suspensions, or modifications in any of these Rules and Regulations when, in its judgment, the same is advisable and such temporary exception, suspension, or modification shall in no way be considered as affecting the general application of these Rules and Regulations.

In all matters not specifically expressed by these Rules and Regulations, the director reserves the right to make a determination which will be binding upon the grave/lot and mausoleum crypt owners and all parties concerned.

The director reserves the right at any time to change, amend, alter, rescind, or add to these Rules and Regulations or any part thereof or to adopt any new Rules and Regulations with respect to all Diocesan Catholic Cemeteries or anything pertaining thereto. Past precedence of rules, regulations, policies, and procedures, does not dictate the need for the same to be approved, accepted, or permitted.
